At the recent National Association of Landscape Professional's 40th National Collegiate Landscape Competition in March at Mississippi State University, we asked students to describe their opportunities, and their future, in the landscaping industry.

Here's what they had to say:

"Progressive." Devon Carroll, Penn State University, pictured left.

"Lucrative." Bobby Hricko, Penn State University, pictured middle.

"Encouraging." Trinity Hamm, Penn State University, pictured right.

"Grateful." Dominic Gachina, Cal Poly – San Luis Obispo
