ORLANDO, Fla. – Harvey L. Massey, chairman and CEO of Massey Services, is pleased to announce that, for the second year in a row, Jean Grono-Nowry has been honored by the Orlando Business Journal as one of Central Florida's outstanding C-level executives in the category of chief financial officer. Grono-Nowry is one of 25 C-level executives who were recognized at a luncheon at the Hilton Orlando on July 9, 2015.

Grono-Nowry manages all financial matters relating to Massey Services, including corporate strategy, budgeting and planning, business integration, as well as all corporate administrative operations, such as accounting and human resources. In addition, she is extremely active in the Central Florida community, and currently serves as chairman of the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Central Florida, as well as treasurer and chair-elect of the Board of Directors for United Arts of Central Florida.

"For more than 16 years, Jean has provided outstanding service to our company," said Massey. "Her background in finance, accounting, auditing and management is of tremendous value to our organization. We are proud to see her publicly recognized for the valuable work she does with our company and in our community."
