The Toro Company has been selected as the single awardee for sports field, parks and golf course ground maintenance equipment for the city of Tucson, Ariz. The new five-year agreement extends the relationship Toro has had as the supplier of equipment and service for the city's more than 110 public parks and five public golf courses for the previous five years.

The city of Tucson conducted a thorough solicitation process in the nationwide search for a supplier. This agreement is available to public agencies and nonprofit entities nationwide via the National Intergovernmental Purchasing Alliance (National IPA) cooperative purchasing program.
